

Cheryl joined CAP with her husband in September of 2009 and became Administrative Officer for Mercer SQ in WV. Cheryl was asked to be wing Admin Officer in 2010 and additionally became WV- IGA from Jan of 2011 – May 2013. She became WV wing IG May 2013 – Oct 2014 and was then asked to become the Middle East Region IG. She has assisted the national IG staff in doing voice over on the IG courses in LMS and also conducted inspections on NHQ Squadrons. In March of 2015, Cheryl received an additional duty assignment of IGA for NHQ-001. In Jan of 2016 she was asked to be an assistant instructor at the National IG College held in GA this summer. Cheryl enjoys being in the IG Corps as it allows her to meet new members and assist them with their tasks to perform their jobs more efficiently and effectively.

From November to March, Cheryl can be found running up and down the basketball court officiating College women's basketball. Prior to becoming a basketball official, Cheryl was a head basketball coach for 18 years at the college level.

Cheryl is married to Ivan Scarbrough, who is the WV Wing IG. Ivan is retired Army of 33 years. They enjoy working in CAP together and traveling to different military bases in the US and Europe. Fall of 2016 Cheryl and Ivan were hired on the teaching staff at Mercer Christian Academy in Princeton WV.

Education:

Master Degree in Athletic Administration, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle WA 1987.

Bachelor of Science, Physical Education and Health, Malone College, Canton OH 1983.